

National Estuaries Network

SCIENCE DAY

Friday 10th November 2006

Australian Museum Theatrette, Sydney

Start	Finish
8:30	8:55	REGISTRATION – Australian Museum, Atrium Room Corner of College and William Streets, Sydney CBD, Opposite Hyde Park. Enter via William St entrance
9:00	9:15	NEN Introduction – Emma Murray , NEN Chair
9:15	9:30	Welcome – Klaus Koop , Director Environment and Conservation Science NSW DEC
9:30	10:10	1. Tony Underwood, University of Sydney Results from ARC Special Research Centre – Ecological Impacts of Coastal Cities
10:10	10:40	2. Arnold Dekker, CSIRO Land and Water Remote Sensing, is it finally ecologically relevant?
10:40	11:10	MORNING TEA (The Atrium Room)
11:10	11:40	3. Neil Saintilan, NSW DEC Climate change and saltmarsh/mangrove communities
11:40	12:10	4. Iain Suthers, University of NSW Enhancing fish populations
12:10	13:20	LUNCH (The Terrace Room, 4 th Floor)
13:20	13:50	5. Tony Roach, NSW DEC Dioxins in Sydney Harbour
13:50	14:20	6. Tim Glasby, NSW DPI Coping with invasive species
14:20	14:50	Gavin Birch, University of Sydney Sediment chemistry and toxicity in Port Jackson
14:50	15:30	AFTERNOON TEA (The Atrium Room)
15:30	16:00	7. Tony Jakeman & Jenifer Ticehurst, ANU Decision Support Systems and Estuary Management
16:00	16:40	Discussion
16:40	17:00	Thank you and Close